

ITAR DECLARATION

OSG manufactures items that are subject to U.S. export control laws and regulations. In order for OSG to comply with US export control laws, we need to ensure that any required export authorizations are obtained prior to an employee having access to items or technical information that are restricted under U.S. export control laws and regulations. Employment with OSG is contingent upon ability to obtain the required U.S. export authorization.